Advertisers must have their copy ready for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication.

Thieves Enter a Home—While Mrs. J. W. Austin was shopping yesterday afternoon, thieves entered her residence at 141 Thirtieth street and made away with goods valued at $175. The robbery was not discovered until Mrs. Austin returned at 6 o'clock. The articles stolen include a necklace, two watches, four rings and two pairs of opera glasses.

Old papers for sale at the Standard Office, 25c per hundred.

Mail Pouch Factory—Superintendent McGrath of the eighth division of the railway mail service passed through Ogden yesterday from San Francisco to Washington, D. C., where he will attend the annual conference of mail superintendents. At the superintendent's convention last year, the subject of establishing a mail pouch factory was discussed and Ogden was given favorable consideration. Because of the need of such a factory within a short time, that subject will probably be brought up at the meeting this month.

Society

MISS JONES ENTERTAINS.
Tuesday evening at her home on Twelfth street, Miss Olive Jones de lightfully entertained a number of friends at a card party and luncheon. High Five was the diversion, prizes being won by Mrs. Edith Read, Asael Hadfield, Wallace Moore and Marion Jones. During the evening Miss Melba Read and Ireta Cross rendered musical selections.
The Jones' home was tastefully decorated throughout, the color scheme being carried out in yellow and white. In the dining room where a three-course luncheon was served, covers were laid for the following guests:
Misses Melba Read, Ellen Farr, Weltha Wilson, Flora Wilson, Marion Jones, Doris Chase, Lorrinda Rostrom, Edith Read, Ruth Barker, Ireta Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Leavitt and Mrs. A. E. Read; Messrs Charles Tribe, Wallace Moore, Ernest Wilson, Charlie Cross, Elias Cross, Clyde Woodcock, Ezra Barlow, Howard Wilson, Asael Hadfield and Seth Stone.
The hostess proved to be a charming one and was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. E. Read and the Misses Flora and Weltha Wilson.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS' BALL.
It is safe to say that, if the annual ball of the Railway Mail Clerks was to pass out of the list of autumn social events, the affair would be greatly missed by the clerks as well as many of their Ogden friends.
A fair sized and most congenial crowd enjoyed the occasion last night at the New Colonial under ideal conditions.

As the guests entered the hallway leading to the ball room, they were each presented with a dainty souvenir program with an American flag as a cover design. Then, going through a bower of palms, they entered the hall, which was prettily decorated with large and small national flags.
A most satisfying program of music was furnished by Crawford's New Colonial orchestra of ten pieces and excellent claret and fruit punch and waters were served by Arne Sumner.

The committees, who received well deserved comments of appreciation from all present, were:

Arrangements.
John C. Livingston, Herbert H. Snyder, Cleveland Porter, Frank J. Jensen, W. T. Phillips, Harry S. Lufkin.

General Committee.
M. A. Mouritsen, Dudley W. Stone, Arthur L. Jensen, Harry A. Jackson, William Brickley, William S. Miller, George F. Prout, William Thacker.

Floor Committee.

Pneu Form

The Pneumatic Dress Form

With Pneu Form and a properly fitted waist lining the most elaborate gown or skirt may be completed without a try-on. Pneu Form takes in the largest part of the hips and the adjustable rod gives skirt length.

Made to be pinned, too. The air chamber is made of scientifically air-proofed cloth—non elastic—will therefore last many years in any climate. One Pneu Form will reproduce any number of figures provided it is ordered in a size a little larger than the largest person.

When not in use the small box base holds it all. Weight ten pounds.

We should like an opportunity to demonstrate this most economical labor-saving dressmaking device.
